NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 24 -The Yale-Harvard championship baseball game-the second in the series between the two universities-was begun at 3 o'clock this afternoon on Yale Field in the presence of 9,000 spectators, who completely filled the big grand-stands and bleachers.

Almost every Yale class from 1852 to 1902 was represented in the vast gathering, the younger classes being conspicuous in uniforms of white duck and blue. Each of the uniformed classes was accompanied by a band, and after arriving at the field marched and countermarched picturesquely beyond the dia-

(Special to The Evening World.)
SHEEPSHEAD BAY, June 24.—With charming weather and a perfect track as conditions, the racers did their wallops at Speepshead Bay this morning in a spirited way.

When the C. H. Mackay string was shown it was seen that Heno was in the number, and it was noted that the racer looked exceptionally well after his trip to Chicago and his severe race in the American Derby. Jockey Bullman, who rode him in the Derby, was also present. Grand Opera covered the half mile ground in 51. Trigger galloped a mile and a quarter in 2.17 1-2. Dartman and Roslyn turned a mile in 1.50.

J. E. Seagram's Gold Cure reeled off the mile route in 1.45. The two-year-olds Dramatist, Dragoon and Healing Salve did five furlongs in 1.04 and 1.04 1-2. Basuto and Presumption did six fur-

Careful training and good handling by his manager, Jim Kennedy, have made Champion the sensation of the season. Since April 19 he has won ten straight races, beating Harry Elikes twice, Bobby Walthour four times, Howard Freeman, Bennie Munroe, Tom Butler, Otto Maya, Floyd McFarland, Simar, Leander and McConnell. The most wonderful part of his riding has been the big inroads he made in the record column, cutting the one-mile record to 1.18 2-5, five-mile to 5.53, and the ten-mile to 13.52 2-5.
